CHERRY LEAF'S GOOD RACE.

The first bleak day of the season and the leaden sky furnished the high winds which asked "what have you been doing all summer?" and "How about the coal?" "Miseries of the abdomen" were told of by the thin blooded southerners and "Hot Scotchies" had a good play. But the race track "regular" was more chipper than when the weather is warmer. "It's just getting good," said he. "The cool air will make the horses feel better." One bookmaker froze up. There were fifteen regulars left and two field bookmakers.

Ed Corrigan's colors showed first past the post for the first time this year in Chicago when Agnes C. crossed the wire ahead of Penso Roso. It was a lucky win, as the second horse got off badly. Georgina was left at the post. Alva's Pet went out in front, Belle Decker attending, but Agnes C. took command at the first eighth and was not again headed, although shook up severely by Thorpe in the last eighth to stall off Penso Roso. Exquisite was a fair third and an open length away came Long Suit, as both Alva's Pet and Belle Decker, which pair occupied the second and third positions for five-eighths, quit at the finish. Penso Roso was off just ahead of Georgina and ran a remarkable race. Belle Decker, although showing to be lame in the shoulder, was strongly supported because of a second at Brighton Beach. She is a good looking daughter of Prophecy, well remembered hereabouts.

Signs of the betting ring tended toward the conviction that Mary Black would have a hard race and on the strength of a strong play on Timemaker, the price of E. Wishard's entry advanced from 4 to 5 to even money, although the 12 and 5 place and show against Sefton told the tale that the stable had only one string to its bow. A good start for all but Sefton, practically left (he finished pulled up an eighth out paired with Sun Bonnet), and Belle of Memphis shot out and for an instant led Mary Black, Timemaker being third and Verify fourth. The favorite had no difficulty in gaining the lead and there she staid all the way. Belle of Memphis, always second, beat Timemaker three open lengths and Verify, fourth, beat Richard J. Mary Black was never in trouble, although Belle of Memphis finished at her tail. Johnny Reiff took it so calmly through the last sixteenth that he never even deigned to look at the contender, but while away his time by studying natural history through observation of a grasshopper, that, in a half frozen condition had pinned himself on Mary Black's bridle.

Now came the handicap, and the Australian bookmaker started the ball with the yell "Here's 3 to 1. take your pick. Come and get it," and immediately the public jumped on the kangaroo's neck with large and small money, wagered on David Tenny. Thorpe was on the Dunne entry and when one is guessing he usually lights on Pat Dunne's horse much as he would lead trumps at whist. So David Tenny became the post favorite at 2 1/2 to 1. The race was a great betting one and the result proved that the public appreciates the work of a good work of a handicapper as at the finish the last horse was close up. At the start Fervor made some kind of a bobbie and faltered, but Holden quickly got him going, so that entering the back stretch, he was only two open lengths behind the bunch. On the first turn a bump caused Cherry Leaf to fall back and now he was two lengths behind Fervor. Afamada led to the straight. Found and Plantain alternating in the second and third positions. David Tenny was fourth around the upper turn. As the leaders swung around the last bend no one ever saw such a close bunch of eight horses. Even Cherry Leaf and Fervor had joined the band and it was "company front" three-sixteenths from the goal. Holden had hugged the rail with Fervor all the way and at the final sixteenth his horse, running strongly, looked to be winning, when on the extreme outside was seen the "red and white sash black cap" of Tom Berry, and like a flash Cherry Leaf had collared Fervor. Racing home locked, Cherry Leaf gained the verdict, yet so close was the finish that no one ventured an opinion as to which horse had won, but patiently waited for the number to go up. Yet when the winner was announced there was no shout of disapproval. Storm King, David Tenny and Plantain ran such a finish that here, too, the judge's decision was necessary to decide the question of third place. Taken all around there never was a better handicap run in Chicago. And it had a sensational aftermath, for J. Reiff could not stop Cherry Leaf, and the winner ran again around the course and to the first turn past the judge's stand before the boy could stop him.

Tom Calvert surprised the bookmakers by winning the fourth race. The horse had been opened at 2 1/2 to 1 by Marcus Cartwright, and the 9 to 1 straight and 3 1/2 to 1 place obtainable at the post, tells the story of the pencilers' thoughts. Official led up the backstretch, then Gray allowed Reuben Rowett to lead the favorite for a time, but Official took command again at the turn for home, and, although hard ridden, looked to be winning close in, when Tom Calvert, always kept well up in third and fourth positions by McNickle, came on strongly and won with something left. Prince Blazes was quite outrun from the start and was the last horse (bar Cutter who was never in the race) to strike the straight, yet he finished third, beating Reuben Rowett who always seems to chuck it up the last quarter. Swordsman was third until the middle of the upper turn and Trebor was right behind Tom Calvert on the far turn, but finished a sixteenth out. Inconstancy did not run as well as was expected.

A great day of racing was spoiled through the execrable start in the fifth race, by which T C McDowell's grand filly, Rush, was left at the post—not quite standing still, but so tangled up that at once she was out of the race. Rush had acted badly at the post, but so had several of the others. It was an unfortunate happening for Starter Bruen and the no recall system. The betting had been very lively, and the horse-men were, almost to a man, down on Rush. Miss Marion got off in front, only to be quickly outrun by Ailyar. That she died away at the finish and was beaten for the place by Espionage is only in line with the fears of her owner that she was a trifle short. Ailyar was never in trouble and won as he pleased, while Espionage caught and passed Miss Marion one hundred yards from the wire. Next came Formero, some lengths back, attended by L. Pillott, Jr. Rush was not ridden out, the jockey seeing her chance was hopeless.

Bruen retrieved himself in part by making a perfect start in the sixth as he had in the fourth race. Tonto, the favorite, got knocked back and was last passing the judges, but he was by far the best horse in the race, picked his going, and was second to Governor Sheehan at the upper turn, then given a breathing spell by Aker, coming on at the betting ring and winning with his ears pricked, from Governor Sheehan, who was trying to get into the infield. Governor Sheehan had made the pace throughout attended to the far turn by Beau Monde. The latter was beaten close in for third money by Black Fonso. Prince of India stopped badly in the home stretch.

Winner—Ch. c. by St. Leonards—Carita. Post 25 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving. St. Clair is of fair class. A great deal was taken out of him at the post, where he acted badly. He was well ridden. Satin Slipper is probably better than this race shows and was possibly short. She made a wide turn. Maher's ride would have landed her first. Diminutive was favored at the start and in every other way, but could not do any better, and is only ordinary as compared to the first two at the distance. Mark Miles runs well on this track. So does Belgravia. Beckon, off badly, ran well, but Dean is generally lost in a big field. The rear horses had no chance after the start.

Scratched—Anagram, 109; Somers, 102; George Simons, 102; Menn, 99. St. Clair, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Satin Slipper, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Diminutive, show, even.

Winner—B. c. by Quicklime—Monte Rosa. Start fair. Won driving. Millstream was on the rail, lucky and saved for the stretch where strong handling landed him first. The Winner, lucky and carefully nursed, closed very strong. The same applies to Continental, who was perhaps the best of the first three as the race was run. Merry Prince was in fine fettle today. He was shut off on the first turn and lost four lengths which were made up so quickly as to leave him nothing to finish with. With Millstream's luck he would have beaten him. Miss Tenny opened a big lead on her field, but stopped in the last quarter. She was probably short. At that distance was too long for her. Long Acre, off poorly and not favored in any pronounced manner, ran much better than his race shows. The same applies to Oxnard as far as a bad ride is concerned.

Scratched—Knight of the Garter, 101; Charentus, 93; Merlin, 92. Millstream, place, 2 1/2 to 1; show, even. The Winner, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Continental, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Dixon—Alpena. Start fair. Won easily. Alpen was admirably ridden. He has a great burst of speed. Leando was saved the first part and, skinning the rails, came very strong in the stretch. He is of very fair class and likes a route. Glenheim received weird handling. He nearly fell out of the race the first part and was coming like a whirlwind. His race was a peculiar looking one, taking the horse's characteristics into consideration. Turvedrop stopped suddenly when appearing sure of second place. It was due undoubtedly to lack of condition. Sublet ran well. Colonel Tenny quit in the stretch. Chorus Boy was short, but showed a fine burst of speed.

Scratched—Autumn, 123; Frohsinn, 120; Easter Card, 118; Wild Aids, 95. Alpen, place, 2 to 5. Leando, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Glenheim, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c, by Fonso—Florence E.
Start good. Won easily. Fonso was easily best and outclassed his field. Sir Gawain found this track suited him better than any other. His best races were at Brighton. Leedsville ran badly. He can do much better. He is now controlled by W. C. Daly and vagaries of form may be expected. Blaiserock ran well enough for consideration among lower class ones.
Scratched—Bannock, 128; Long Ace, 112.

CHERRY LEAF'S GOOD RACE.

Captain Walden overlooked the fact that the first race was a selling affair and so entered both Revenge Dare and La Champagne. Thursday afternoon he discovered the error (only one horse in the same stable can start in a selling race) and Judge Rees decided that "scratch one," "scratch both." It was afterwards discovered that a rule of the Turf Congress covers such cases and that in selling races the first horse to come out of the entry box can start. But now it could not be ascertained which name first appeared. So Captain Walden, through a chapter of accidents, was deprived of a chance to win what he thought was an easy race.

Abe Shepherd was telling a story of war times away back in 1866 when he was of the military family of General Phil Sheridan, and just then struck the program boy and bought a copy. So occupied was he in the description of the marvelous bow and arrow still owned by him and which was of the equipment of the noted Apache, Friday, that he failed to look at the back of his program until he turned it to mark the scratched horses in the sixth race. "There I go," said Abe, as a blank sheet met his gaze. "Still the story of the red ear of corn which has followed me always. Here they print 2,500 programs, and I draw the only blank."

Jockeys Caywood and Everett are said to be quite sick with malarial fever. The latter is convalescing but Caywood's temperature was reported by Dr. W. E. Kidd as being at 105 degrees Thursday.

Jockey Rose was suspended for the remainder of the meeting for crowding in the finish with Plantain. He will be allowed to ride W. H. Snarley's horses, this trainer being his employer.

J. K. Redmon is a recent arrival from the Montana tracks with a string of winning horses, including John Havlin, Lucky Star, Serrano and Brown Dick. He is at Harlem.

Sloan and Hurst claimed Official (in at $200), but the papers were irregularly filed, and so Judge Rees could not entertain the claim.

Jimmie McCormick did not claim Organ Pilot as reported.

Winner—Ch. c. by Rayon d'Or—Glory.
Start good. Won easily. Gala Day was easily the best and appeared to be galloping until right at the end. He is a very fast horse, but unreliable. Frohman closed strong at the end. He likes this track and was lucky throughout. Hampden closed a big gap from a slow beginning. Blissful ran well. Is much better, however, in the mud. Saratoga quit the last quarter. Ortolan looks well. He lost ground from a slow beginning. Tabouret is stale. She quit badly after the first three-eighths. She has been off since her run off of the dead heat with Kenmore Queen. Scratched—Fleeting Gold, 101; Lerete, 96.
Gala Day, place, 1 to 2. Frohman, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Hampden, show, 4 to 1.

Start good. Won driving. Governor Budd was lucky and well handled. Widower lost six lengths in the stretch when he ran out at the second hurdle. He would probably have won but for that. Winner—Br. f. by Riley Innovation.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in the hardest kind of a drive; second and third also driving. Agnes C barely staggered home. It took all of Thorpe's skill to keep the filly going long enough to win. Penso Roso swerved some below the eighth pole; but for this she could not have lost. Holden straightened her out quickly and under hard riding came strong again. Exquisite, well ridden, ran her race. She was right there all the way, but weakened when the pinch came. Belle Decker, played for a good thing, could not run fast enough to keep warm. It was a bad lot.

Scratched—La Champagne, 112; Revenge Dare, 112; Dutchie, 112; Eliza Blaze, 112.
Agnes C, place, 3 to 5. Penso Roso, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Exquisite, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Islington—Songstress.
Post 5 minutes. Start good for all but Sefton. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Mary Black had speed to loan. Reiff did not urge the filly early and rode a waiting race in front. He let out a wrap on the far turn and she easily drew away from those behind. It is probable that Mary Black will be retired after today. Belle of Memphis ran a nice race. She had a lot of speed and showed no inclination to stop at the end. Timemaker, slow to begin, was coming strong at the end. He is not as good as he was early in the season. Richard J. can do better. He had some speed but not his usual amount and stopped badly. Throw his race out. Watch Verify in slower company.

Scratched—Jim Brown, 103; Czarowitz, 112; Major Hawkins, 106; Found, 103.

Overweights—Sefton, 5 pounds; Verify, 1.

Winner—B. c. by Athelstan—Sunbeam.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; the next three were driving also. It was a good handicap and furnished a genuine horse race throughout. Cherry Leaf was in rather light and his price surprisingly long. Little Reiff rode a good race on the colt. He was outrun the first part of it and waited until the stretch was reached before making his move. The colt was game and responded nicely the last quarter. Fervor suffered from bad handling. Had Holden been able to help him any at the finish he probably would have won. David Tenny had all the bad luck in the race. He was hemmed in and in a bad place all down the back stretch and had not Bloss pulled out with Storm King the chances are Thorpe would have gotten a bad fall. Plantain ran a good race. He is a useful colt under light weight. Storm King, after he was pulled out by Bloss on the far turn, finished strong. Found quit badly at the head of the stretch. At that point she looked dangerous. Crocket's race was not up to the mark. Afamada dislikes a route. She was well up for three-quarters, but stopped when pinched. Cherry Leaf ran away a mile after the race.

Scratched—Linda, 100; Pinocchio, 90.

Overweights—Afamada, 5 pounds; Plantain, 4.

Cherry Leaf, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Fervor, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5; David Tenny, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Hindoo—Pure Rye.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won with something left at the end after an early drive. The next three were doing their best. Tom Calvert was nicely ridden. McNickie placed him cleverly down the back stretch and when straightened away for home pulled to the middle of the track where the going was best. On the other hand, Gray made a lot of use of Official early and was in the worst going all the way. The ride may not have cost the colt the race, nevertheless it was not a good one. Prince Blazes, outrun the first part of it, finished strong. This is a useful selling plater. Inconstancy was in a bad place all the way, and it looked several times as though she would be thrown. The other boys made allowances for Reiff, though, and pulled out. Reuben Rowett showed a lot of speed.

Scratched—Tusculum, 100; Serena, 102.

Winner—B. c. by Himyar—Aileen Aroon.

Post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won eased up. There was no contest. The field was strung out for fully a sixteenth of a mile at the start. Had Formero been of any account he could not have lost. He was clear of the field when the start was made but was sharply outrun. In fact was outrun all the way. Ailyar had speed to loan. The chances are he would have won no matter where he got off. Judging from Miss Marion's performance she was hardly ready. She had speed the first part of it but stopped at the end. Espionage ran a good race from a time standpoint. Rush had no chance at the start and Hill never urged her.

Scratched—Nora C, 99; Prince McClurg, 102; Pat Cleburne, 99; Stamina, 107; Chancery, 102; Cora R., 99; Free Hand, 99; Flirtation, 99; Frank Ireland, 102.

Winner—B. g. by Teuton—Lady O'Fallon.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive; second driving. Third cleverly. Tonto was the best as the race was run and plainly showed it. He is a slow beginner and passing the stand was far back. Aker found an opening on the first turn and all down the back stretch was in a good position. The gelding had to be hard driven in the stretch to catch Governor Sheehan but when he got to him the latter stopped. Sheehan ran a clever race. He had a lot of speed but could hardly last. Black Fonso had bad racing luck. He was bumped and interfered with often but finished strong and true. Con Reagan had no speed at all. Neither had Sybaris. The latter would not extend himself and pulled up lame.

Scratched—Double Dummy, 104; Cyril, 102; Lucky Monday, 95.

Overweights—Beau Monde, 1 pound; Farmer Leigh, 2.

Tonto, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Governor Sheehan, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Black Fonso, show, 3 to 2.
